

SEP 10 1958

I am very pleased that you did me the honor of inviting me to speak to you today. Your organization had in its membership my father and my grandfather. I recall warm memories of them and their association with this worthy society as I appear before you today in my home town of Dallas. I must confess too that I am always happy to come home. As an Air Force officer and as the Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, I have visited all of the great cities of the world. In none of them do I feel at home as I do in Dallas. I think I will let you in on a little secret; I am proud to be a Texan and I am in love with Dallas.

I want to talk a little bit today about the evil to the United States and to the entire free world of atheistic Communism. Communism has one aim -- the domination of the world. It wears different masks at different times so as to present to the world a different face, one it believes will further its efforts at a particular moment. Marx maintained that by conflict, particularly class struggle, history will advance toward a predestined end, first to socialism which will include the elimination of capitalism and then the elimination of the State with the successful transition to Communism.

Marx laid down the strategy and Lenin gave the tactics. Within the Communist Party the proletariat or urban workers retained power after it has been seized and the Party is "the vanguard of the proletariat." Even if there is a debate before a decision is taken the Party requires that the decision must be unanimous and binding. The Party which recognizes the proletariat as the only class that counts to Communism and claiming to be the only representative of the proletariat thus becomes absolute in power and a small body of men or even one man at the top, as in the case of Stalin, controls all. The average man is powerless because if he takes any action contrary to the Party he becomes "an enemy of the people." Lenin wrote,

"... but as soon as we are strong enough to strike down capitalism as a whole, we shall immediately seize it by the throat." All Communists, no matter where they live, owe allegiance to the Kremlin. Stalin wrote,

"In present circumstances one cannot call oneself a Marxist unless he openly and devotedly supports the first proletariat dictatorship in the world." Stalin also wrote, "Objective: to consolidate the dictatorship of the proletariat in one country, using it as a base for the overthrow of imperialism in all countries." In 1920 Lenin said, "As long as capitalism and socialism exist we cannot live in peace; in the end one or the other will triumph -- a funeral dirge will be sung either over the Soviet Republic or over world capitalism." You are all familiar with the Communist line of aggression since 1945 in Greece, Korea, in Tibet, in Malaya, Indochina, in Hungary and today in the Taiwan Straits. You will all recall the Berlin Blockade, the Revolution in Czechoslovakia backed by the Red Army, the economic pressures against Yugoslavia in 1948 and again a few months ago continuing right up to the present. You are aware of the quantity of arms furnished to Egypt and Syria, of the complete control of the satellites of eastern Europe, of the exploitation by the Communists throughout the world of nationalism, anti-colonialism, neutralism and of "peace -- which isn't peace at all" so as to divide the free world and to frighten and take over by penetration and subversion, uncommitted nations. Communist dominated front organizations are a trojan horse in free countries. Many of the members of such organizations are completely misled. Some, of course, are what we would call "do-gooders" and "bleeding hearts" but the hard core, of course, are strictly servants of the Kremlin who have no moral inhibitions and to whom the end justifies the means. The activities of these fronts fall geographically into two main categories; the domestic and the foreign. The CIA is interested in what is done abroad. Within the United States the chief agency dealing with this serious problem is the FBI where Mr. J. Edgar Hoover has exposed organizations and fronts under which Communists in America are masquerading. There are some 200 organizations on the Attorney General's list of subversive Communist fronts. In Europe and in Asia Communist agents cross and infiltrate land frontiers and work with the Communist parties in the countries that they have infiltrated. Well-trained Communists direct the activities of these various parties. They work for chaos out of which revolution may come. In France and in Italy over the past several years they have had a large number of Communists in their legislative bodies. These Communists take advantage of every privilege and right which is a part of the free government system and then they abuse these privileges in efforts to destroy freedom. They take an organization that once had a reputation for responsibility and by penetration give it a policy that results in subverting the weak and dividing the strong. They hide their Moscow affiliation so as to further Communism, under their theory that the end justifies the means.

Here are some of these Communist front organizations:

The World Federation of Trade Unions, the World Federation of Democratic Youth, the International Union of Students, the International Organization of Journalists, the International Federation of Resistance Fighters, the International Association of Democratic Lawyers, the World Peace Council, and the Women's International Democratic Federation.

The World Federation of Trade Unions has offices in Peiping, Latin America, Africa, in Europe and they are particularly active in France and in Italy. They claim a membership of some 70 million people.

The World Peace Council you will recall, secured some 2 million American signatures to the so-called Stockholm Peace Appeal a few years ago.

International Communism spends a great deal of money on these front organizations and their affiliated activities, particularly in securing from these fronts, propaganda favorable to the Kremlin. It is estimated that the cost of these organizations is around 2 billion dollars a year.

They have a strong "Women's International Democratic Federation" which is said to cost some 6 million dollars a year to run and to get its representatives from 40 different countries to various international meetings. Through these organizations Communists try to deceive the non-Communist world.

The Communists very naturally try to conceal their connections with these front organizations so that their deceptions will be more effective. The danger to the free world from these fellow travelers is a dangerous one.

Khrushchev today is the leading Communist ruler. The Communist Party secretariat which had small representation on the Party Presidium immediately after Stalin's death has been reversed. The once powerful Presidium, while still to some degree a deliberative body is not the principal policy-making body. The secretariat now meeting with Khrushchev decides policy, then transmits its decisions to the Presidium. The Presidium not so long ago comprised Molotov, Kaganovich, Malenkov, Mikoyan, Bulganin, Pervukhin and Saburov. Today just one of them remains, Mr. Mikoyan. If these members of the "Inner Cabinet" have been sent to the sticks, a new comer is being brought along by Mr. Khrushchev. He is Mr. Koslov who now looks like the crown prince just as Malenkov was groomed by Stalin. Mr. Khrushchev is 15 years older than Koslov but Khrushchev has helped and directed the rise of Koslov since 1953 when Khrushchev put him in charge of the Leningrad Party machine. He now is the fair-haired boy in the Khrushchev circle.

A silent revolution has taken place in the leadership of the Soviet Union since Mr. Khrushchev became First Secretary after Stalin's death. The secretariat instead of being an executive organ has become the policy-making body and the Presidium theoretically the highest policy-making body has become secondary to the secretariat.

I have been attempting here to show other evils of Communism and how it exists in an atmosphere of conspiracy. Khrushchev denounced Stalin's murders, of course, after Stalin had been dead for a long time but he never attacked Stalin's efforts toward Communist domination of the world. In the recent attacks on Yugoslavia the Communist nation, he shows that "Revisionism" is today as it was from the time of Marx, one of the gravest sins which a Communist can be guilty of.

Since the end of World War II the Soviet Union took over the satellites in Eastern Europe and has annexed the Baltic states as well as having taken territory from Poland, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Finland, Germany and Japan.

Communism is political cancer; unless checked it will be a danger to the whole world.
